Moving forward!

Scientific Symposium on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the Betty and David Koetser Foundation for Brain Research

Wednesday, 13th September 2017
15.00 - 18.30h
University Hospital Zurich,
Lecture Hall Monakow,
Department of Neurology,
Frauenklinikstrasse 26, 8091 Zürich

This year’s Koetser Award winner together with former recipients and colleagues from Zurich Neurology will present milestone achievements and future prospects in neuroscience of movement control and the treatment of movement disorders.

Key speakers

Roger Lemon
University College London, UK
(Koetser awardee 2011)

Michael Halmagyi
University of Sydney, AUS
(Koetser awardee 2017)

Martin Schwab
University of Zurich,
ETH Zurich, CH
(Koetser awardee 2007)

Christian Baumann
University Hospital Zurich, CH

Dominik Straumann
University Hospital Zurich, CH

Semir Zeki
University College London, UK
(Koetser awardee 1997)

Alim Louis Benabid
Grenoble, FR
(Koetser awardee 2002)

The Foundation

Since 1993 the Betty and David Koetser Foundation supports clinical and basic research in the field of neurology and neuroscience with special focus on movement disorders and neuropsychology. The Foundation has an interest in strengthening exchanges between basic research and clinical implementation.

For more information see:
http://koetserfoundation.org/